Sir,

Subject: Notes defaced with Political Slogans.

No. Fl. (B.) 14288—96. I am directed to forward herewith for information and guidance a copy of Currency Officer's letter No. M.A. Cy. 3553—Res. 7-7 of 53, dated the 18th February 1953, on the above subject and to request that needful instructions may be issued to the Treasury Officers under your control.

Yours faithfully,

Copy of letter No. M.A. Cy. 3533—Res. 7-7 of 53, dated 18th February 1953, from the Currency Officer, Reserve Bank of India, Issue Department, Madras.

Notes defaced with political slogans.

It has recently come to the notice of the Government of India that Currency/Bank notes bearing slogans of a political character have been circulating in certain parts of the country. They have, therefore, drawn attention of the public to the Legal Tender (Inscribed Notes) Ordinance, 1942, and also warned them against using Currency/Bank notes as a vehicle for publicising slogans (such as "Agitate against sales-tax" "Ban Cow Slaughter", "Fight for Linguistic States" etc.,) and against accepting such notes. A copy of the Press Note issued by Government in this connection is enclosed.

2. As under the ordinance referred to above, such notes have ceased to be legal tender and the Reserve Bank is no longer under any obligation to exchange them for other notes or coin, payments for such notes should be refused by you, and the tenderers of such notes advised to present their claims to this office.

PRESS NOTE

The attention of the public is drawn to the provisions of the Legal Tender (Inscribed Notes) Ordinance, 1942, under which Currency and Bank notes which bear writings intended to convey or capable of conveying a message of a political character cease to be legal tender and the Reserve Bank of India is not under any obligation to receive or refund the value of such notes or to issue coins/currency notes/bank notes in exchange therefor. The public, are therefore, hereby warned not to use currency and bank notes as a vehicle for publicising any slogan. They should also refuse to accept notes so defaced in order to avoid being involved in financial loss.

J. N. RADHAKRISHNAN,
For Addl. Asst. Secretary to Government,
Finance Department.
